Suicide prevention, intervention and response video series for clergy, pastors, ministers, rabbis and other faith community leaders

Date: 2014 (For resources, this is the publication date. For programs, this is the date posted.)

Information

Type: Video/Audio Recording
Author: Caring Clergy Project
Publisher: Interfaith Network on Mental Illness

See This Resource

http://inmi.us/video-series/ [1]

This series of five videos for clergy discusses: warning signs and risk factors; how to tell if a person is considering suicide; responding to a suicidal person; responding to family members after a suicide; and designing a service for a person who has died by suicide.

Links within this resource