United Suicide Survivors International: An Appreciative Inquiry Webinar

June 26, 2017
News Type: Weekly Spark, Weekly Spark Announcement

RI International [1] is hosting an informational webinar [2] on United Suicide Survivors International (United Survivors [3]), a global organization that empowers people with lived experience to become suicide prevention change agents using their skill set and stories to create cultural and systems change. The webinar will feature DeQuincy Lezine, president and CEO of Prevention Communities [4] and chair of the Attempt Survivor and Lived Experience Division of the American Association of Suicidology (AAS [5]). The webinar will be held on June 27 from 6 to 7 p.m. ET.

Links within this resource
[1] https://riinternational.com/