Zero Suicide Outcome Stories

Date: 2019 (For resources, this is the publication date. For programs, this is the date posted.)

This webpage provides a portal to the Zero Suicide Outcome Stories, a series that highlights efforts to implement and measure the impact of the Zero Suicide framework in health and behavioral health care systems. The stories feature organizations that observed a variety of outcomes after launching Zero Suicide, representing a broad range of improvements in suicide care.

Links within this resource
