

Pain in the nation: Healthcare systems brief: How healthcare systems can help address the drug, alcohol and suicide crises

Date: 2018(For resources, this is the publication date. For programs, this is the date posted.)

Information

Type: Fact Sheet/Issue Brief

Author: Trust for America's Health and Well Being Trust

Publisher: Trust for America's Health

See This Resource

Healthcare systems brief [1]

This brief provides guidance on how healthcare systems can address drug, alcohol and suicide crises through a "whole health", systemwide approach. This model integrates services and programs, including new and existing ones and employs multi-disciplinary partners and collaborators to decrease fragmentation and provide comprehensive behavioral health services.

Links within this resource

[1] <https://www.tfah.org/wp-content/uploads/2019/04/TFAH-2018-PainNationHealthCareBrief-05.pdf>

Printed on 03/28/2020 from <http://www.sprc.org/resources-programs/pain-nation-healthcare-systems-brief-how-healthcare-systems-can-help-address-drug>

The Suicide Prevention Resource Center at EDC is supported by a grant from the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services (HHS), Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration (SAMHSA), Center for Mental Health Services (CMHS), under Grant No. 5U79SM062297.

The views, opinions, and content expressed in this product do not necessarily reflect the views, opinions, or policies of CMHS, SAMHSA, or HHS.

Copyright © 2002-2019 by Education Development Center, Inc. All Rights Reserved.

