Zero Suicide: An international declaration for better healthcare

Date: 2016 (For resources, this is the publication date. For programs, this is the date posted.)

Information
Type: Guidelines/Recommendations
Author: International Initiative for Mental Health Leadership
Publisher: Zero Suicide

See This Resource
Zero Suicide: An international declaration for better healthcare [1]

This declaration was developed by a diverse group of 50 peer leaders, government policy makers, and healthcare providers from 13 countries convened for Atlanta 2015: An International Declaration and Social Movement to address the aspirational goal of zero suicide in healthcare. It discusses the problem of suicide stemming from a lack of effective care and steps healthcare organizations can take to prevent suicide deaths among their patients.

Links within this resource
[1] https://zerosuicide.org/2016/01/30/international-declaration/

Printed on 07/03/2020 from https://www.sprc.org/resources-programs/zero-suicide-international-declaration-better-healthcare