Suicide prevention master series with Dr. Jerry Reed [1]

This podcast episode features an interview with Jerry Reed, Education Development Center’s senior vice president for practice leadership and Suicide, Violence, and Injury Prevention Portfolio [2] lead. Reed shares his professional journey, as well as the background behind the development of the National Strategy for Suicide Prevention [3] (NSSP) and launch of the National Action Alliance for Suicide Prevention (Action Alliance [4]). He also explores ways to advance the NSSP and provides an overview of the major priorities of the Action Alliance.
