Assisting the School in Responding to a Suicide Death: What Every Psychiatrist Should Know

September 21, 2018
News Type: Weekly Spark, Weekly Spark Announcement

Julie Goldstein Grumet, SPRC’s director of Health and Behavioral Health Initiatives, has coauthored “Assisting the School in Responding to a Suicide Death: What Every Psychiatrist Should Know [1].” The article appears in the October issue of Child and Adolescent Psychiatric Clinics of North America [2].

Links within this resource