Faith. Hope. Life. [1]

Faith.Hope.Life is a campaign to involve every faith community in the United States, regardless of creed, in suicide prevention. The campaign website offers information and tools to engage faith communities in prevention efforts throughout the year and during the National Weekend of Prayer, including faith-specific resources and a portal for events and media inquiries. Faith.Hope.Life. is an initiative of the Faith Communities Task Force of the National Action Alliance for Suicide Prevention, the nation's public-private partnership for suicide prevention.
