MCNDH wishes to continue to utilize funding provided through GLS to build on previous success and to create a network throughout the entire health system to identify potential suicidal patients, to treat patients who have attempted suicide, and to continue successful community outreach and education events to build resilient and mindful communities. MCNDH will successfully create a comprehensive network within our by implementing electronic patient assessments in outpatient and inpatient facilities, expanding clinical support specific for at risk patients, and creating care coordination for discharged patients.

Links within this resource